And none can deny it but the Transgressor beyond bounds, the Sinner!

Introduction and Summary

This Surah is close in time to the last one and the next one. It condemn all fraud-in daily dealings, as well as and especially in matters of religious and higher spiritual Life.

C.263 (The running Commentary, in Rhythmic Prose)

Shun Fraud in all things: in little Things of daily life, but specially
In those subtler forms of higher life,
Which will be exposed to view at Judgement,
However hidden they may be
In this life. Give everyone his due
For the Record of ill deeds and good
Is fully kept, and the stains of sin
Corrupt the soul. Reject not the Real
Now, nor mock: for the time will come
When the True will come to its own, and then
The mighty arrogant will be abased!

1. Woe to those that deal in fraud --

C6011. "Fraud" must here be taken in a widely general sense. It covers giving short measure or short weight, but it covers much more than that.

The next two verses make it clear that it is the spirit of injustice that is condemned, giving too little and asking too much.

This may be shown in commercial dealings, where a man exacts a higher standard in his own favour than he is willing to concede as against him.

In domestic or social matters an individual or group may ask for honour, or respect, or services which he or they are not willing to give on their side in similar circumstances. It is worse than one-sided selfishness: for it is double injustice. But it is worst of all in religion or spiritual life: with what face can a man ask for Mercy or Love from Allah when he is unwilling to give it to his fellow-men?

In one aspect this is a statement of the Golden Rule.
'Do as you would be done by'.

But it is more completely expressed. You must give in full what it due from you, whether you expect or wish to receive full consideration from the other side or not.

2. Those who, when they have to receive by measure, from men, exact full measure.

3. But when they have to give by measure or weight to men, give less than due.

4. Do they not think that they will be called to account? --

C6012. Legal and social sanctions against Fraud depend for their efficacy on whether there is a chance of being found out. Moral and religious sanctions are of a different kind.

'Do you wish to degrade your own nature?'

'Do you not consider that there is a Day of Account before a Judge Who knows all, and Who safeguards all interests, for He is the Lord and Cherisher of the Worlds? Whether other people know anything about your wrong or not, you are guilty before Allah'.

5. On a Mighty Day,

6. A Day when (all) mankind will stand before the Lord of the Worlds?

7. Nay! Surely the Record of the Wicked is (preserved) in Sijjin,

C6013. This is a word from the same root as Sijn, a Prison. It rhymes with and is contrasted with Illiyin in verse 18 below. It is therefore understood by many Commentators to be a place, a Prison or a Dungeon in which the Wicked are confined pending their appearance before the Judgment-Seat.

The mention of the Inscribed Register in verse 9 below may imply that Sijjin is the name of the Register of Black Deeds, though verse 9 may be elliptical and may only describe the place by the significance of its contents.

8. And what will explain to thee what Sijjin is?

9. (There is) a Register (fully) inscribed.

C6014. If we take Sijjin to be the Register itself, and not the place where it is kept, the Register itself is a sort of Prison for those who do wrong.

It is inscribed fully: i.e., no one is omitted who ought to be there, and for every entry there is a complete record, so that there is no escape for the sinner. (R).

10. Woe, that Day, to those that deny --

11. Those that deny the Day of Judgment.

C6015. The fact of Personal Responsibility for each soul is so undoubted that people who deny it are to be pitied, and will indeed be in a most pitiable condition on the Day of Reckoning, and none but the most abandoned sinner can deny it, and he only denies it by playing with Falsehoods.
13. When Our Signs are rehearsed to him, he says, "Tales of the Ancients!"

C6016. Cf. 6:25; 68:15; etc.
They scorn Truth and pretend that it is Falsehood.

14. By no means! but on their hearts is the stain of the (ill) which they do!

C6017. The heart of man, as created by Allah, is pure and unsullied.
Every time that a man does an ill deed, it marks a stain or rust on his heart. But on repentance and forgiveness, such stain is washed off.
If there is no repentance and forgiveness, the stains deepen and spread more and more, until the heart is scaled (2:7), and eventually the man dies a spiritual death.

It is such stains that stand in the way of his perceiving Truths which are obvious to others. That is why he mocks at Truth and hugs Falsehood to his bosom.

15. Verily, from (the Light of) their Lord, that Day, will they be veiled.

C6018. The stain of evil deeds on their hearts sullies the mirror of their hearts, so that it does not receive the light. At Judgment the true Light, the Glory of the Lord, the joy of the Righteous, will be hidden by veils from the eyes of the Sinful. Instead, the Fire of Punishment will be to them the only reality which they will perceive.

16. Further, they will enter the Fire of Hell.

17. Further, it will be said to them: "This is the (reality) which ye rejected as false!"
18. Nay, verily the Record of the Righteous is \( \text{preserved} \) in 'Illiyin.

C6019. 'Illiyin: the oblique form of the nominative Illiyun, which occurs in the next verse.

It is in contrast to the Sijjin which occurs in verse 7 above, where see n. 6213.

Literally, it means the 'High Places'.

Applying the reasoning parallel to that which we applied to Sijjin, we may interpret it as the Place where is kept the Register of the Righteous.

وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا عَلِيُّونَ (١٩)

19. And what will explain to thee what 'Illiyin is?

كَتَابٌ مَّرْقُومٌ (٢٠)

20. (There is) a Register (fully) inscribed.

C6020. This repeats verse 9 above, where see n. 6014. But the Register is of the opposite kind, that of the Righteous. It contains every detail of the Righteous. (R).

يَسْهَدْهُ المُقَرْبُونُ (٢١)

21. To which bear witness those Nearest (to Allah).

C6021. See 56:11, n. 5227; also n. 5223.

Those Nearest to Allah will be witnesses to this Righteous Record; or as it may also be rendered, they will be present at the Record, and watch this Record.

Metaphorically, the highest spiritual dignitaries are always helping and assisting at the piling up of the good record of every soul that strives for good, however humble in rank that soul may be.

إنَّ الْبَرَارَ لَفِي نَعِيمٍ (٢٢)

22. Truly the Righteous will be in Bliss:

على الأَرَاشِدِ يَنْظُرُونَ (٢٣)

23. On Thrones (of Dignity) will they command a sight (of all things):
24. Thou wilt recognize in their Faces the beaming brightness of Bliss.

25. Their thirst will be slaked with Pure Wine sealed:

26. The seal thereof will be Musk:

27. With it will be (given) a mixture of Tasnim:
See n. 5835 to 76:5 (Kafur fountain), and n. 5849 to 76:17-18 (Salsabil). (R).

28. A spring, from (the waters) whereof drink those Nearest to Allah.

29. Those in sin used to laugh at those who believed,

30. And whenever they passed by them, used to wink at each other (in mockery);

31. And when they returned to their own people, they would return jesting;

32. And whenever they saw them, they would say,

"Behold! these are the people truly astray!"

C6027. The wicked laugh at the righteous in this world in many ways:

- They inwardly laugh at their Faith, because they feel themselves so superior.
- In public places, when the righteous pass, they wink at each other and insult them.
- In their own houses they run them down.
- Whenever and wherever they see them, they reproach them with being fools who have lost their way, when the boot is really on the other leg.

In the Hereafter all these tricks and falsehoods will be shown for what they are, and the tables will be reversed.

33. But they had not been sent as Keepers over them!
C6028. But the wicked critics of the Righteous have no call in any case to sit in judgment over them. Who set them as Keepers or guardians over the Righteous? Let them look to their own condition and future first.

34. But on this Day the Believers will laugh at the Unbelievers.

C6029. The tables will then be reversed, and he laughs best who laughs last.

35. On Thrones (of Dignity) they will command (a sight) (of all things).

C6030. A repetition of verse 23 above, but with a different shade of meaning.

The Righteous on their raised couches will be able to see all the true values restored in their own favour: but they will also see something else: they will also see the arrogant braggarts brought low, who brought about their own downfall by their own actions.

36. Will not the Unbelievers have been paid back for what they did?
